From: Daniel Silver

To: Patrick Silver

Date: January 12

Subject: Germany

Dear Patrick,

Are you well? How is Germany? Are you enjoying your vacation? The news says that there is a lot of snow this year. It's nice and warm here at home. Did you watch a soccer match over there? Your mother says to stay warm, and that she misses you very much.

Stay safe,

Dad

Hi Dad,

Nice to see your e-mail. I am having a great time here, and the snow is fun. It is better than the rain. Last weekend I went to watch a soccer match! There was a goal at the very end. It was very exciting. Next week I'm going hiking in the mountains. I miss you and Mom too, and will see you soon.

Your son,

Patrick

Dream

Yuki's dream is to win at the Tokyo Olympics. She first had this dream when she was 10 years old. Yuki played a lot of different sports, but she didn't know which one she could become really good at.

One day a professional tennis player came to Yuki's school, and taught them to play tennis. Yuki asked him, "I live in Shibuya. Is there a tennis court there?" The coach said "Yes, it is very close. I also give tennis lessons there". Yuki decided that she wanted to be in the Olympics as a tennis player.

Four times a week, Yuki visited the tennis courts. She practiced for many years. When she first started playing, Yuki could not hit the ball. She worked with her coach and practiced very hard. Now she can control the ball, and can hit it hard. Next month are the Olympic tests, and Yuki hopes she will play for her country.

- (26) What is Yuki's dream?
